ABOUT

Kimberly d. Harden

Kimberly Harden is Atlanta's Image Architect & Lifestyle Concierge known for revamping, redefining, and enhancing the lives of others with her simple wardrobe whisper approach to style, fashion fundamentals, personal development, branding, self-awareness, and individualized image enhancement - from the inside out.

Kimberly's commitment to helping others discover their unique abilities within and become the true woman they envision has afforded her the opportunity to consult and style women of different of many different forms and career paths.

What's her secret? Outside of her project management efforts, life strategy workshops, mentoring, speaking, and coaching opportunities, Kimberly harnesses her greatness from a strong belief in God and her huge personality.

She embodies a unique combination of both analytical organizational structure, yet with a down to earth appeal, fun-loving wit, coupled with strategic vision and life experiences have made her a guiding light to many who aspire to achieve the next level in reaching their personal and professional goals.

How does she do it? With her warm heart, intuitive ability to serve, and a keen eye for assisting everyday icons, women of influence, business professionals, and entrepreneurs alike to recognize their own God-given architecture, Kimberly has begun to build an empire of her own whose foundation stands on values permitting all that she encounters to become the most authentic version of themselves.

To ultimately transform feel, and look, reach their fullest potential and become the person they were destined to become. Learn more about Kimberly at www.kdharden.com.
